PSY 250 Social Psychology

Summer 2024

Course Credits: 4

Contact Hours: 56 hours

Instructor: TBA

Email: TBA

COURSE OBJECTIVES

---

This course is a comprehensive exploration of social psychology from the perspective of human beings. It provides a general overview of how people's thoughts, feelings, and behaviors are influenced in social psychology based on classic and contemporary findings from the social psychological literature. The major topics in this course include psychological methods, social cognition, social perception, attitudes and attitude change, interpersonal attraction, aggression and prejudice. Throughout this course, students will be encouraged to think about how research in social psychology can shed a light on events going around the world.

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Develop an understanding of central questions and issues in contemporary psychology;
2. Describe the skill to critically evaluate the major areas of psychology;
3. Connect psychological assumptions to personal experience and social life;
4. Apply scientific methods in data collection and analysis;
5. Enhance academic writing skills.
